

Rio Arriba County Detention Center (RACDC) POLICY 012: IN-SERVICE TRAINING

The Rio Arriba County Detention facility personnel are required to complete emergency procedures training as well as any other training designated appropriate by the administrator.

Procedure:

1. Detention personnel may be tested in all areas of in-service training.
2. The administrator shall ensure that in-service training be completed and included in each staff member's file.
3. The in-service training test scores may be used as a factor in determining promotions and retention of detention officers and other staff.
